Alec Quandt Airman Of The Month

Wilmington — Airman Alec Quandt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Quandt of Pershing St., has recently been named "airman of the month" and received the following commendation from Washington, Airman Quandt is stationed in Alaska.

Airmen frequently have an opportunity to demonstrate their abilities, initiative and intelligence to a minor degree, but seldom have a major opportunity such as has been given to Airman Quandt to fully demonstrate his capabilities. Airman Quandt is assigned to the Manning Section which recently completed revision of its procedures and operations. He displayed far more than average initiative in presenting, developing and evaluating with a minimum of supervision, the proposals allotted him.

Directly serving the Air Force he recently displayed his perception in developing a new card format for the Organization and Troop File which 1. reduced card volume, 2. simplified work procedures, 3. reduced key punch and machine time by approximately 40 percent and 4. Saved considerably in machine rental.

Development of the system involved long hard work hours with overtime and many discussions with operating officials (especially those of command stat.) to determine the adequacy of the system. The system's final format has been approved and commended by command operating agencies.

For an average airman to become involved in technical systems and procedures such as are used by the Manning Section would have required, in most cases constant direction by the sections' supervisor to the point where the project would have suffered considerably. In this particular situation, Airman Quandt proved not only his ability, but proved that he is an exceptional airman.

Airman Quandt is prompt, keen judgement at all times, neat in appearance and displays his ability to get along with his "slow" airmen is beyond reproach.

Eight streets are up for construction, with a total estimated cost of $64,722. A public hearing will be held on Feb. 19 in conjunction with the Planning Board Hearing. The Selectmen felt that, as a result of the hearing, some streets may wait until a future date.

Streets up for consideration are Wing Rd., estimated cost $3,595; Oakridge Circle, $19,259; Walker St., $2,970; Kiernan Ave., $4,602; Marcus Rd., $19,787; Dell Drive, $4,298; Patricia Circle, $3,999 and Shady Lane Drive, $1,611.

REPS. TANNER AND DONOHUE ATTEND NICHOLS ST. BRIDGE HEARING

Wilmington — Despite the stormy conditions prevalent Monday evening, over thirty residents of the Nichols St. area attended the Selectmen's hearing relative to the Nichols St. Bridge. Engineer Wilcox of the County Commissioners office attended the meeting with his assistant, to discuss aspects of the relocation of the dangerous bridge. Also attending the meeting were Representatives Frank Tanner and Thomas Donohue, Town Engineer George Maynard and Town Manager Joseph Courtney.

The group, many of them members of the Shawheen Ave. Improvement Assoc. who have long been fighting for reconstruction of the bridge, were shown the suggested routes that the County has mapped out and were told the advantages and disadvantages of the layouts.

The County recommends at least a 24' road. (the present bridge is 14', 8") with a 3' grade on the approaches which now have an 8 or 9 degree grade. After the Town, the County and the Boston and Maine have agreed upon a route and the cost will be apportioned by the three. The County will then prepare land taking and surveys.

Mr. Wilcox recommended if the RR volunteered to do sign the bridge it would undoubtedly be a good, inexpensive design. Next decision would be who would construct the bridge. Rep. Donohue asked the recommended width of the structure. Mr. Wilcox said that plans called for a 29' overall measurement which includes a 5' sidewalk.

Asked for a similar recent reconstruction to use for comparison, Mr. Wilcox cited the Gray St. bridge in Billerica. Using figures from this bridge the Selectmen and County engineers came up with a $100,000 estimate for total cost of the project.

STEADY DATING IS GOOFY

By Joseph A. Bieg, editor of the CLEVELAND UNIVERSE-BULLETIN

I think that the people who make speeches in which they denounce "steady dating" would defend their own and make careful distinctions.

I like that many people are coming to feel that a youth must necessarily select a different girl about every time he goes to a school dance or some such festivity. And that the most realistic, different type, but that is not so.

WHAT, I think, is the reason for the steady dating craze? It is being caused, and need not be, by the fact that the young man is in love with a girl.

It is something that ordinarily has a great deal of good about it, and can be carried out with reasonable success.

In love with a young person who is in no position to marry within, say, a couple years, or who in any case has no intention of doing so, "steady dating," properly defined, means that two such people are together a great deal, perhaps a couple of times weekly or often, and that frequently they are alone together, or at least accompanied only by one other couple. And they seldom or never make "dates" with other boys or girls.

THREE chief reasons are involved. There is excess in frequency of association, excess in exclusiveness, and excess in closeness or privacy.

The note of exclusiveness enters because this over-dating leads to public displays of possessiveness—displays which are ludicrous, ill-mannered, and embarrassing to everybody. Perhaps the most depressing effect is the loss of femininity and masculinity. I mean that the young people involved in these excessive attachments tend to lose identity, individuality and distinctiveness.

THEY BECOME over-dependent on each other. It is as if each were the opium of the other; and both grow dopey.

The girl no longer likes to be with girls. She does not enjoy the special lighthearted fun of female gatherings. She feels incomplete without the chap to whom she has grown fast.

The young man suffers even more than the young woman in these over-attachments, because masculinity, of its nature, is more independent than femininity.

YOUTH is a time for learning and vigorous activity. It is a time for getting acquainted with a great many people, for becoming a familiar and cheerful member of the human family.

Of course, young men and women will still have their preferences. But they must not let them get out of hand. If young people are to become what they really want to be—self-reliant and mature men and women—they will master and control their dating as they master and control other things. They will do some straight thinking about it, and guide themselves accordingly.

The Vicar Had The Right Answer

Buildings of the world's mightiest cathedrals had plenty of construction problems, but none of them could have faced the prospect of their structures being washed away every spring.

Which is exactly what happened at Moose Factory, Ontario, on the fringe of the Canadian Arctic. For a few years after the small wooden Church of St. Thomas was built on the banks of the broad Moose River, at Moose Factory, Ontario, parishioners grew more and more concerned. And they had good reason to be. As the ice went out of the river each spring, the swirling waters of the muddy Moose would gently ease the Anglican house of worship off its foundations. Then they would place it down a few yards closer to the north end of town.

Several proposals were made, but only the vicar's was practicable. Instead of fighting the floods, he suggested, why not let them have their way. At his suggestion, the parishioners bored holes in the floor, then waited for next spring. Sure enough, the floodwaters came. But instead of sweeping away the church, they flowed quietly in through the holes—then flowed out again as the river subsided.

The parishioners checked. The church had not moved an inch. Though the Moose does not flood as much as before, tourists coming over by canoe from the rail terminus at nearby Mooseport, from where there is direct connection with the Canadian National transcontinental lines at Cochrane and North Bay, pause to talk about the holes in the floor of St. Thomas's. Wooden plugs now keep out the winter cold.

Not only the holes in the floor attract the visitor to the Moose Factory church. Many are charmed by the altar drapes of moosehide, headed with the painstaking craft of Indian craftsmen. The pulpit and lectern are similarly adorned.

Parishioners bored the holes years ago when floodwaters from nearby Moose River moved the building bodily every spring. After that, the water merely flowed in and out of the church through the holes, leaving its position undisturbed. PH

PENNIES SAVED ON SHOPPING TRIPS CAN BE WASTED AT THE GAS PUMP

When the George Donas of Evanson, Ill. want something from the store, they usually send 17-year-old Connie. Not that she has a reputation as a "sharp trader"; but Connie can squeeze more out of a gallon of gasoline than anyone in the family.

Connie Donas
"It doesn't make any sense to drive miles to a supermarket to save on purchases," the elder Donas argues with convincing logic, "if the money is wasted in making the trip." Connie prides herself on economical driving. That she's an expert was proved recently when she won a teen-age contest in the family's 1956 Chevy over a varied 100-mile course with an average of 20.56 miles to the gallon. According to Connie, there was no trick to it. She says she merely observed the following rules:

1—Don't accelerate too quickly, whether from a standing start or on the road. Even with an automatic shift, pick up speed gradually. If your car has a manual shift, shift as soon as possible.

2—Avoid sudden stops. With a red light ahead, let the car coast, if traffic permits. If it looks like I'm going to be stalled at a railroad crossing, I turn off the engine.

3—Tire pressures affect economy. Keep the tires well inflated to save money. The result may be a slightly harder ride, but the car steers easier.

4—Car windows should be closed as much as practical. A drafty car means you're also carrying a load of air currents that resist progress.

5—Determine your car's most economical driving range. Try to stay within that range on the open highway as much as traffic and road conditions and speed laws will permit. Don't strain your engine. Experience will teach you that the engine isn't as smooth if you press too hard on the accelerator.

"The most important thing about economical driving is that it keeps you conscious of your job," says Connie. "An economical driver is generally a safe one."

duced the District Governor, who in turn voiced his appreciation of such an outstanding project, and stated that it would give him something to bring to the other clubs in the district.

Mass. 4-H Girls Back from Chicago Congress

The 36th National 4-H Club Congress recently concluded in Chicago is a once-in-a-lifetime experience to be long remembered by Bay State 4-H Club members who were there. Among the delegates were the 1957 state winners in the national 4-H award trials: home economics and dress revue programs.

Elizabeth Pail
Elizabeth Pail, 17, of Worcester county, knows how to make a house a real home. Proof of her ability is that she won the state award in 4-H Girls' Home Economics. Receiving this trophy home-maker with a trip to the Congress was Montgomery Ward, donor of the awards for the 34th consecutive year.

Some of Elizabeth's projects in 18 years of 4-H were gardening, sewing, clothing, and safety. Her sewing efforts won the 1954 and 1955 county medals. In 1955 she received the county gardening medal, and last year the county safety medal.

Elizabeth also merited awards in judging vegetables, demonstrations and won the 1956 county fair trophy for her part in the sewer exhibit.

The held offices in her 4-H Club, and was a junior leader.

The coveted 4-H Dress Revue award, a week in Chicago, was won this year by Catherine Magee, 17, of Norfolk county.

Her dual role as seamstress and model helped bring about this honor. The Stagnicity Pattern Co. sponsored the trip, and was host to Catherine and girls from all other states.

Catherine modeled her winning

ensemble at the gala style show during the Congress. Her costume, a fitted navy blue wool suit, features a long line jacket with two patch pockets at the hemline. The slim skirt is tailored lined.

To accent her suit, Catherine created a gayly figured red cotton blouse, matching the jacket lining. The blouse has a tiny turn-over collar and three-quarter length let-in sleeves. White gloves, clutch bag, navy hat and navy leather shoes completed Catherine's outfit. Last year she modeled a prize winning dress at the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield.

Catherine was twice president of her local 4-H Club. She is a senior at Westwood high school.

The 4-H award programs are arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, and conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service.

As My Garden Sleeps

By Mari Gold

With the mild weather of the past week, most of the trees and shrubs have sprung back into shape. If some of the branches are still bent out of shape, take a soft rope and tie them in place. If you use a wire, be sure to cover the limb with a piece of old inner tube so that the wire will not cut the limb, and cause injury.

Watch for cocoons on the bark of trees, brush them off or if necessary, burn them off lightly with a torch to get into close spots. Our native white pine has a borer which causes the limbs to turn brown. Cut this off about two inches beyond the brown part and burn it. All evergreens should be sprayed with an oil spray sometime before March 15 on a day when it is over forty-five degrees and when there is little chance of a drop in temperature at night. This will remove the whitish scale and keeps down the red spider.

The seed catalogues are arriving every day and every year they offer new flowers, many of which are your old favorites in a new and improved garb. A week ago, I wrote on a petite merigold. Merigolds have been a favorite for years. The African and French in the last ten years have stepped right out in front of all others with their selection of colors, maroon, bronze, lemon and gold to the fore front of the annual flowers trade. Despite their common names, both of these flowers are derived from a pair of Mexican wildflowers. The seeds were smuggled back to Europe in the days of the Spanish galleons, when they had to run the gauntlet of the Atlantic as they carried treasures of the new world across the sea.

These flowers became very popular in southern Europe and were called the Rose of the Indies and soon spread to the coast of North Africa and were accepted as a wild flower of the region. These flowers date back to August 1572. The two types of merigold remain distinct right up to the present day.

The first great improvement was the elimination of the odor from the stem and leaves. The next was the development of a brighter and better color. We now grow merigolds in many shapes and sizes, both in the plant and in the flowers. Some have blossoms as small as violets or as large as chrysanthemums. There are also many sizes in between. Colors range from pale yellow to deep orange, reddish brown, bronze and two tone brown and yellow. There are merigolds for any flower plan. Tall ones which can be used for backgrounds and short ones for window box use or for the edge of the garden.

The odor of the merigold has been bred out by crossing with a species which is found in China. Our grandmothers used to add a teaspoon of sugar to the water in which she placed her bouquet of merigolds and their unpleasant odor disappeared.

For tall plants, use african, height is three feet. They are very stiff and formal. More graceful are the French merigolds from 12 to 18 inches tall. These are a fine variety of free flowering habit and make a bewildering array of color. For a dainty plant, use the Mexican type, (Tagetes signata perilla) for a wealth of color in the garden all summer, right up until frost strikes, the merigold is unequalled by any other flower. They are easy to grow and free from diseases and insects.

House plants which are getting sprawly or tall and lanky should be pinched back and they will produce compact plants. At this time of year, the coleus is usually getting tall. To produce a well balanced and bushy plant, the stems require frequent pinching. This encourages branching. Mealy bugs are the worst enemy of this plant. If you discover them on your plants, touching the insect with a wisp of cotton dipped in alcohol insures instant death to the pest.

There are so many varieties of house plants, it is hard to tell which ones to write on. A fine house plant is the Shrimp plant, it is a native of tropical America. The foliage is attractive with oval leaves about two and one half inches long, tapering to a thin stalk. The flowers long, purple and spotted with white. They are carried on shiny backed spikes. Another novelty plant is the cigar flower. This plant is a native of Mexico. The flowers resemble a cigar with their bright red calyx and white mouth with a dark ring at the end. It is easily grown as a house plant. I have seen these offered for sale in our local florists shops and dime stores. Why not try one or two of these novelties to brighten up the dark winter days?

WORLD BEAUTY GETS FACIAL

NEW YORK—The windowless and apertureless north and south walls of the 38-story Secretariat Building of the United Nations are being waterproofed to preserve the beauty and increase the longevity of the 10,000 pieces of various size Vermont marble used in the building's construction.

According to Brisk Waterproofing Company, the firm selected to do the tremendous job of waterproofing the 600 feet high, 72 feet wide world famous structure, a special rigging system was devised.

A T-shaped scaffolding was constructed to extend around the corners of the building to enable the workmen to gain access to the scaffolds from windows in the east and west walls.

When the process of removing the mortar from the joints between the marble is completed, and synthetic rubber caulking compound is inserted, it is estimated the workmen will have covered 13 miles of joints.

Billie-erica—Sink into that big soft easy chair, munch into a delicious huge piece of chocolate devil's food cake smothered with fudge frosting and dream. Picture yourself as sportsman or woman of the year appraised in a snappy ski suit, gliding down the white mounds of Mt. Washington, or coping the tennis championship or doing superb on the golf course.

Imagine playing the lead role with Audrey Hepburn and Tony Perkins, dancing with Fred Astaire, or singing with Patti Page and Pat Boone. Perhaps your imagination depicts you as the cosmopolitan career man or woman, or for the boys flying with none other than the Blue Angels. Maybe your future self is portrayed as an airline stewardess, politician, bank president, efficient nurse or capable family doctor. The crystal ball may focus on YOU making Ted Williams look like an amateur, or dribbling down the court as a Celtics star, or coaching a championship team.

Whether the years will transfer YOU from a teen to a teacher or TV star or Dick Tracy, YOU will have to seek the answer, but no matter what the outcome may be we hope that your imaginary REALM is REALIZED!

Speaking of realms, the realm of Billie-erica basketball is certainly a special one as our girls, especially, are going like the proverbial "house a fire". The boys, though they might not cop the top notch position on the Sub League due to strong NA are doing excellent and to both teams an express congratulations and good luck in future games.

Excitement at its peak might have well described the BMHS gym when our hot hopefuls played host to the Wilmington squad. Our girls had their game nicely stitched up towards the end, but the boys game was a nail biter from beginning to end. And what an end it was, as you already have learned. My expression of sympathy is extended to all of YOU who did not attend for you missed one of the best games ever seen in that gym.

Capt. Jack McHugh, Bobby Hookway, Bob Brown, Bill Sherwood, Bill Lavery were the subject of many cheers done by Mam'selles Lee, James, Doyle, McGurn, Strom, Gleason, Gaudet, Grappi and Milton.

Backing up this fine group were our ever faithful femmes: Pat Lavery, Bernie Dubois, Pat Gibbons, Judy Petipas, Jackie Peake, Mary Rowlandson, Marilyn Cooke, Betty Lewien, Marie

Callahan, Bea Perreault, Judy O'Connor, Lois Sargent, Ruth Hallenborg, Claire Dubois, Cathy Catalano, Judy Lewis, Judy Tingley, Linda Chute, Muriel Wellington, Carol Gradozzi, Ann Gradozzi, Ann McPherson, Jackie Doherty, Sandy Mirasolo, Tina Grady, Louise Leighton, Mary Gill, Doty Goodyear, Joyce Callahan, Isabelle McGuire, Jan Nuttall, Freda Carpenter, Tina Grady, Helen Jewkes, Carolyn Snowdon, Brenda Sampson.

Other BMHS boosters included: Dennis McCaffrey, Lenny Murray, Richie Amerault, Dave Barreille, Claire Caisie, Paul Mulcahy, Eddie Maxfield, Al Simpson, Steve Kelley, Ken Brown, Claire Dubois, Bill Selfridge, John Soule, Joanne Parkhurst, Bob Gill and Carol Gratton.

Our sparkling squaws, led by capable captain Polly Dempsey, are on the road to success and aboard Polly's bandwagon are: Rita Burke, Ginny Gibelli, Nancy Weeks, Mary Simpson, Spence, Fay Forsley, Dianne Destrosiers, Claire Caisie, Jean Colton, Sue McNeil, Barbie Rounds, Kathy Mahoney, Tina Grady, Helen Jewkes.

A round of applause should be given to the undefeated girls' Jayvees which consists of: Capt. Sue Seagel and Margaret McKenna, Brenda Sampson, Martha Dunn, Joanne Parkhurst, Sally Snyder, Dot Goodyear, Mary Gill, Joyce Callahan, Dianne Corbett, Joy Brown, Sandy Burke, Linda Richards, Sandy Blake, Alice Miner, Ginny Hermon.

Fashion Focus
Always in the height of fashion, Cathy Grappi chooses two wool dresses in pastels pink and powder blue for her day time to date time wardrobe.

Another model of perfection, Pat Gleason, wears black, coral and pink and orchid to complement her golden tresses. A pink v neck sweater with a pleated coral skirt, an orchid wool ensemble, a black jersey spiced with a red wool skirt and lots of gold bangle bracelets are a few of her favorite outfits.

Navy blue is the favorite of lovely Sue Seagel, who combines a navy corduroy full skirted jumper with a white lace long sleeved blouse.

Carolyn Snowdon has, along with Pat Gleason, reestablished the knee sock style and Carolyn likes wearing a medium gray pair with a gray, black and white plaid sheath, accented by a red jersey dickey.

Bunky Doyle likes the feminine and sweet look she attains by wearing a coral wool straight skirted jumper with a lace cotton blouse. Sandy Milton also delights in this look, especially by wearing a red corduroy full skirted jumper with a white lace long sleeved blouse.

Attention Boys—(especially seniors) The girls are getting impatient! Please hurry and ask them to the prom. You know how fussy and particular girls are. They need forever and a day to choose that gorgeous gown that will make them the belle of the ball, and if you think for 'one minute that they can choose this creation in a short space of two weeks, you're all wrong. So best you give that lovely lady forewarning (and an eased mind) and ask her NOW. Who cares about money? You're only young once, they say.

"Sweethearts' Serenade" is going to be a paradise for Dan Cupid and his archers, and Red Caterino and her decoration crew will be doing all in their power to ensure this. Need we say more; anything that Red does is bound to be a masterpiece of perfection.

Best wishes for a successful term were bestowed upon incoming Worthy Advisor, Judy McAnern, last Saturday evening when the Rainbow Girls held the impressive ceremony in the Masonic Hall following a supper. Judy wore a nylon net over taffeta gown of floor length, fashioned with a bateau neck, cap sleeves and cummerbund.

Joyce Lee was the outgoing Worthy Advisor and served as Installing Marshall and presented the following girls to the altar to assume their respective offices: Associate Worthy Advisor, Esther Melindy; Charley, Nancy Weeks; Hope, Janet Howard; Faith, Nancy Poehler; Drill Leader, Carol Vallyou; Chaplain, Leanne Rounds; Recorder, Mary Garant; Treasurer, Gerry Collins; Organist, Karen Ericson; assistant organist, Jane Farmer; Choir Leader, Judy Coffin.

Beautiful Donna Turner was the installing soloist for the evening and wore a ballerina length gown of nylon net lace over net layers and taffeta. The gown had a full bouffant skirt and a bolero jacket with fitted bodice. Donna sang "You'll Never Alk Alone" and "Oxy Father".

The Bow consists of: Marge Berry, Jackie Lee, Dottie Martell, Harriet Skelton, Joni Webster, Rebecca Meshau, Joan Egan.

Spotted among the audience were: Carolyn Hester, Marilyn Cooke, Bob Brown, Bob Carpenter, Dick Hentz, Muriel Wellington, Judy Tingley, Chris Colbert.

Installing suite consisted of: Budgie Fowler, who is Grand Hope in the State Assembly, Barbie Redden, Heather James, Donna Turner, Karen Ericson.

Nancy Poehler and Peter Clarke are always on the GO, going places and doing things. Last Friday evening the two some journeyed to the Totem Pole, and Nancy looked gorgeous in a peacock blue velvet dress with sweetheart neckline and a full skirt.

The many friends (and we do mean many) of popularity plus BMHS grad, Ray Pollard, are happy to see him home on leave, especially lovely Nancy Crear who will almost blind you with the exquisite ring she received from Ray.

We seem to have an inexhaustible supply of worthy teens and this week's selection is another of Billie-erica's very best, who has done much for the betterment of the school and reputation of it. Our choice is Dotty Gaudet. Some of her activities - Cheerleading - 2, 3 and with Donna Turner will lead the '58 - '59 squad, softball, intramural bowling, volleyball, basketball, GAA secretary - treasurer, 2, GAA vp., 3, Drama Club, Art Club, National Honor Society, class of '59 vice president, 1 and 2, and Council Rep. for SG.

Dot is active in St. Mary's of Pinhurst being in the CYO and has helped to make many a minstrel show successful. Dot is in the commercial course at BMHS and has a job in Woburn as well. How does she manage to do it all? That's her secret, for no matter where she is or what her task, Dotty handles it capably and efficiently without faulting. Her winning personality has taken her places for many years and this combined with her dependability will take her far on the road to success.

How do you like the new giant economy size newspaper? It's growing bigger and better to keep up with the pace YOU are setting. Hope sincerely that you enjoy every inch of it, and as practice makes perfect, please have that glorious virtue of patience with us as we SOAR UPWARD!

Never ceases to amaze us how neat and perfectly groomed Pat Shine is, how versatile Jean Colton and Bob "Rocky" Collier are: how fabulous Buster Hansen and Steve Kelley are: how Bernie Dubois always has that glowing and warm smile no matter what may happen; how perfectly Americana the Nuttings Lake Lees are: how grand Barb Sullivan and Mac McCaffrey are.

The last page of the notebook 'the fading typewriter ribbon and the sleepy writer all indicate that it's time to call it a day, but not without thanking YOU and hoping you'll be good and HAVE FUN.

D. A. V. HI-LITES

Wilmington—On last Saturday Commander Simpson of Chapter 106 led a group from Wilmington, who attended the testimonial given in honor of Herman Lee, at John Hancock Hall in Boston. Among those present was D. A. V. National Commander Paul Frederick, Jr. Commander Frederick spoke out against the unrealistic policies of the Veterans Administration in the field of Veterans' Compensation, both service and non-service connected. It appears to us that the primary concern of the V. A. now seems to be to cut benefits and services to veterans wherever and whenever they have the slightest excuse, in the interest of cutting their budget to the bone. The fundamental purpose of the V. A., to render service and care to the veteran, seems to be of secondary importance. The D. A. V. hopes that the new V. A. director will bring with him a new and enlightened policy towards disabled veterans. We resent the thinking in the V. A. higher echelons that disabled veterans are largely chiselers who must be slashed by the axe of economy.

The next regular meeting of Chapter 106 will be held on Wednesday evening, February 5, at 8 at the headquarters on Grove Ave. Lethargy on the part of members, especially in the attendance at their Chapter meeting only serves to make the job of protecting our rights and privileges much more difficult. Attend your Chapter meetings.

Home Improvement Package Eases Handyman's Tasks

Planning to add a room? Enclose a porch? Finish a recreation room or attic? Insulate? Building material dealers throughout the country are making projects like this easier for the home handyman by providing all necessary materials in a complete, pre-cut, ready-to-assemble package.

If the job is turning an attic into a bedroom, study, or playroom, for example, the delivered "package" would consist of wall framing, mineral wool insulation, wall finishing material, trim boards and molding, hardware, doors, and windows.

The lumber and wall finishing material would be pre-cut and ready to be nailed in place. Windows and doors of ponderosa pine would be delivered in units, with frame and sash or door put together at the factory, and need only be installed.

A principal advantage of the packaged project is that it eliminates waste and delays caused by faulty measuring and cutting. Also, the spare time handy-

Survey Shows Green Preferred Roof Color

Green is the most popular roofing color for American homes, according to a survey by the Asphalt Roofing Industry Bureau.

White, however, is rapidly gaining as a preferred "color" in asphalt shingles, especially in the South. White asphalt shingles help make a house cooler in summer by reflecting much of the sun's heat.

WOOD FOELS MOISTURE

Moisture condensing on interior frames and sash of windows can run down and damage paint and wallpaper. For this reason, many home-owners prefer windows of ponderosa pine. Moisture won't condense on wood in a heated room because wood is a natural insulator and does not readily get cold.

Insulation Cuts Cost Of Electric Heating

Homes in many localities now can be treated economically with electricity, thanks to the heat barrier provided by thick insulation.

Mineral wool, installed in recommended thicknesses of 6 inches in ceilings, 4 inches in walls, and 2 inches in floors, where necessary, keeps heat in. As a result, the amount of electricity used stays relatively low.

BLUE GAINS IN WEST

Interior decorators in California are using more and more shades of blue as a key color. Dramatic effects are achieved with turquoise as the predominant color, white as a background, and accents of sharp orange and copper.

Cowell and Robertson, New York architectural and engineering firm, specializing in modern food-handling plants, Walter L. Ritchie of Malden is the contractor.
A new laboratory and other features of modern food-handling plants are included in the plans. Modern management.

Sales of United Farmers were reported at over 21 mil-crease of 2.5 million dollars over 1956. Over 150 million quarts of milk are handled by the organization annually.

A board of 21 farmer di-addition to wholesale service, United Farmers maintains home delivery service to

Too much speed is a factor in nearly 40 per cent of all fatal accidents.

Well-Built Wall Holds Key
To Home Comfort, Economy

A well-constructed exterior wall does more than hold up the roof of a house and provide a place to hang pictures.
Besides keeping out rain, snow, dirt, and unwanted visitors, it is a "hiding place" for electric wires and insulation.
Families who are planning to buy or build a home should know that a properly-built wall is as important to their future comfort and security as any component of the house.
What makes one wall better than another? The photograph shows a well-constructed wall with a section cut away to show what's inside. The 2 x 4 studs
(1) are of well-seasoned lumber.
If they were green, they might warp, throwing the wall out of line.

The studs are sturdily braced, horizontally (2) and diagonally
(3) and get even more strength from the brick (at least 3/4 of an inch) sheathing (4).
Vital to health, comfort, and heating economy is the thick mineral wool insulation (5) installed snugly between the studs. The mineral wool blocks the passage of heat to the outside in winter, and from the outside in summer. With at least four inches of ceiling insulation, fuel bills can be reduced by as much as 40 percent.
Exterior wall coverings, such as the brick (6) protect the wall from the weather and its appearance from the outside. Interior materials, such as gypsum board, function primarily for appearance.

For 'Custom-Built' Walls:

Stock Doors Perfect for Paneling

Interior decorators across the country today are enthusiastic about a new idea that adds drama and texture to drab rooms.

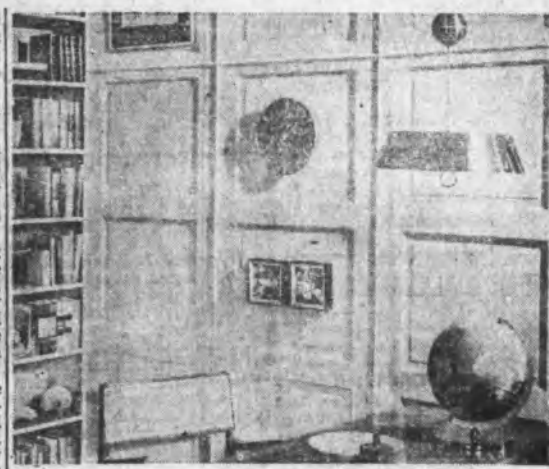

The idea: Using wood panel doors as wall paneling.

The panels provide built-in frames for pictures, clocks and other decorations. The wood can be stained to retain the warmth of its natural grain, or painted in any color desired.

In the photograph, four stock doors of ponderosa pine were used to panel one wall of a den. Three doors were fitted side by side, and the fourth was sawed into three sections to fit above them. Joints were covered with narrow, half-round molding.

Paneling one wall or an entire room can be an ideal do-it-yourself project, since little technical knowledge or skill is necessary. The walls should be carefully measured and the measurements discussed with a building material dealer. He can offer advice as to which of several stock sizes of doors should be used.

Panel doors laid on their sides also can be used as wainscoting

Games This Week

Friday
Tewksbury at Chelmsford
Wilmington at Dracut
Burlington at Billierica
The Lowell Suburban League is now half-way through its season. The biggest upset to date, came last Friday when our Billierica boys knocked Wilmington right out of the race. The final score was 43-22. This was, by far, the best game in the league so far. Wilmington's giant center, Win Fairfield, was held to only 14 points by the great guarding of Billierica's king-size man, Don Sherwood. Win stands 6' 7" which is 2" more than Don's 6' 5". Going into the game, Win was the league's leading scorer with an average close to 30 points per game. This total, was cut in half by

Big Don, thus leading to a Billierica win.

The game was very close all the way. At no time did either team lead by more than 5 points. At the end of the first period, Wilmington held a one point advantage 10-9. At the end of the half it was all tied up, 22-22. Billierica led 37-33 at the end of 3 periods. Then during the last period everything happened at once. First Wilmington rallied and went ahead; then Billierica caught up. With two minutes to go, everyone in the gym was standing up cheering for their respective teams. The two teams went right down to the wire fighting. With only 18 seconds to go, with the score 42-41 in favor of Wilmington, Hookway tied up Butt of Wilmington for what should have been a jump ball. Billierica's Bill Lavery, seeing the two struggling for the ball mistook it for a fight and pushed the two apart. Then Big Win Fairfield stepped in and started throwing his weight around at Hookway and Lavery. This resulted in a mingling on the floor of both teams' referees, coaches, and a few referees. After everything calmed down, the officials decided to give Hookway two foul shots and banish Winston from the game. Bob, as cool as a cucumber, stepped to the line and sank both shots to put Billierica out in front 43-42. Only seconds remained and Wilmington tried desperately to set up a play but McHugh knocked the ball out of a Wilmington player's hands and hopped on it. It was called a jump ball. Billierica controlled the top and froze the ball for the remaining few seconds.

After this period of time had elapsed, Billierica's side of the court broke out onto the floor and congratulated the boys for a really terrific upset-win. Coach George Gracie had the biggest smile of all.

McHugh led the Billierica scorers with 11 points. Jack was followed closely by Lavery and Brown, both of whom had 11 points each.

Girls Also Win

In the first half of this double header, our girls showed their skill as they downed Wilmington's lasses 44-35. Billierica jumped right off to an early lead and never was the game in doubt. Billierica was led in the scoring department by their captain, Polly Dempsey. Polly scored 18 points. She was followed by Miss Forsley and Miss Burke, who tallied 15 and 11 points respectively. Wilmington was led by Miss Fisher with 15 points.

Billierica in Double Win Over Tewksbury

Our boys varsity basketball team snapped their 2 game losing streak last week when they downed Tewksbury by a lopsided score of 54-38. For the first three quarters, it was nip and tuck. The score was 17-14 at the end of the first quarter and 34-27 at the end of the second. Billierica pulled ahead during the third period. Then they broke loose! While holding Tewksbury to only 8 points, they scored 18 to win by a good margin of 18 points. Lavery again starred for Billierica, this time with 19 points. Hookway and Brown also hit double figures for the Indians with 11 and 10 points respectively. Morris was high man for Tewksbury with 14 points.

Officials: Sylvain, Schmegegi

Our lasses also won their contest by a good score of 55-49. At the end of the first quarter, it looked like a run-away for Billierica, who led by 13 points; 19-6. Then Tewksbury came to life and came within reach, but just didn't have enough power to stay there. They were sparked by Miss Pappas with 29 points. Billierica played a fine game with three girls in double figures. They were Rita Burke, who tallied 25 points; Sissy Forsley and Captain Polly Dempsey, both tallied 13 points.

L. I. The pastor, Rev. Francis Scully officiated at the ceremony and was the celebrant of the nuptial mass following.

Entering the church with her father, the bride was charmingly attired in a gown of bridal satin designed with fitted basque bodice trimmed with Alencon lace accented with sequins and seed-pearls. The bouffant skirt with lace appliques was fashioned with a cathedral train. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bridal missal with white orchid cover cluster.

with American beauty carnations.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-TWO B. M. H. STUDENTS TAKING DRIVER EDUCATION THIS YEAR

Billierica - Some 132 Billierica Memorial High School students are presently taking the special Driving Education Course which is being offered to students sixteen years and over, at the high school.

This year, practice driving in the school car which was donated by Pierce Ford Sales, Billierica Center, got off to a slow start as the car was damaged by the vandals who broke in the high school back in September. Mr. Sedar said that because the car was damaged, almost two months was lost to the students taking the Driving Course.

The boys and girls passing the course successfully will get certificate allowing a reduction in the compulsory insurance. They will also receive their license through this course after passing a written exam as well as a driving test with the Registry Officer who comes out to the school twice a year to test the students.

Mr. Sedar has done a wonderful job training the students taking this course, and deserves a lot of credit. He puts a lot of time into it. This is his second year as Driving Education instructor. Last year licenses for some hundred and twenty students were given out having passed the exam and test successfully. It was reported that only three students in the whole course failed to get their licenses last year. Mighty good percentage we must say.

Various movies and slides are being shown monthly to help the students see more clearly the need for this special course. This course is proving to be one step in the right direction at Billierica Memorial High School.

WHY...
IS JANUARY A GOOD MONTH TO BUY A USED CAR AT WILMINGTON FORD SALES?
If you can't afford a NEW CAR - buy a good USED CAR!

1 In January, every used car has been checked and conditioned by the auto dealer, to meet bad weather driving conditions. The car is safe, made so to meet winter hazards. It starts when it's cold, the heater works, the windshield wipers work, defrosters and other accessories have been fixed or replaced. The car is ready for rough usage.

2 And always remember WILMINGTON FORD SALES as your Local NEW CAR DEALER. Individual sales staff members, who have all his life's savings and his family's happiness bound up in his local place of business, has much more to protect, when he sells you a good reconditioned car, than does the dealer who does business some 70 or 80 miles away and feels that you won't bother him if something goes wrong.

3 A used car, tested under January driving conditions, has to be right, and it is easy for you to find out if it is. What's more, it costs the auto dealer more to keep his cars looking presentable, what with rain slush, therefore he would like to have fewer used cars on his lot and this tempts him to deal with you at prices lower than the rest of the year. He's perfectly willing to let you save the money that it would cost him in polish, etc.
